I. Introduction

In response to the FCC's Public Notice, DA 06-223, released January 30, 2006, Doylestown Telephone Company, on behalf of itself and its affiliate (Doylestown Communications, Inc.), hereby submits its most recent compliance certificate maintained in accordance with §64.2009(e) of the Commission's rules.

II. Statement of Compliance with CPNI Requirements

Doylestown Telephone Company and its affiliate have implemented operating procedures and safeguards to ensure that it is in compliance with 47 CFR § § 64.2005-64.2009. To this end, Doylestown has procedures in place which ensure that:

- The Company does not share CPNI with any affiliates unless that affiliate already provides service to the customer,
- The Company does not share CPNI with any third parties absent a court order or subpoena,
- The Company does not use CPNI in any outbound telemarketing campaigns,
- The Company has a procedure in place to notify customers if CPNI is going to be used or otherwise disclosed, and has a process in place to allow individual customers to "opt out" of this use,
- The Company has procedures in place to authenticate the identity of callers to their business office before any CPNI is discussed,
- Formal training is provided by the Company on CPNI regulations and the related procedures in place to ensure compliance.

III. Certification

I certify that I am an officer of Doylestown Telephone Company. I have undertaken to an investigation, with assistance from personnel within our various operating companies, of the procedures related to CPNI acquisition, storage, protection, use, and customer permission to use data of Doylestown Telephone Company and its affiliates. Based on my personal investigation, it is my opinion that the operating procedures of Doylestown Telephone Company and its affiliate are generally in compliance with the FCC's CPNI rules as outlined in 47 CFR § § 64.2005-64.2009.

I state under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
